QUESTIONS NEW PARTNERS OFTEN ASK

INTRODUCTION
Food insecurity and hunger are a reality facing every community in Wyoming; it affects 71,060 of our neighbors. Hunger does not discriminate against age, background, education, employment, or familial status. Wyoming’s unique characteristics can present real challenges to those who live at or below the poverty line. For those that live at or below the poverty line it is a day to day struggle to put food on the table. Sadly, food is the most dispensable item on the list of household expenses. Thankfully, we can alleviate hunger by ensuring that a steady stream of good quality, healthy food is made available to those who need it.

WHAT IS A FOOD BANK?
A food bank is a large, centrally located distribution facility that collects, sorts, repackages, and shares all types of food and nonfood items to; partnering food pantries, schools, faith based organizations, community meal programs, and other 501(c)(3) charitable social services. WFBR provides support to those pantries/agencies so they can more effectively serve the food insecure families, children and seniors of Wyoming.

WHAT DOES WYOMING FOOD BANK OF THE ROCKIES DO?
Fights Hunger and Feeds Hope. WFBR is a non-profit organization that distributed over 8.2 million meals (that’s over 10.2 million pounds of food) in FY2019 throughout Wyoming. This can only happen because our partnerships with almost 200 nonprofit hunger relief agencies in all 23 Wyoming counties that provide healthy, quality, nutritious food to Wyoming’s food-insecure. By being a member of Feeding America, WFBR leverages their national agreements, as well as our own local Wyoming agreements, with retail food rescue partners, this is known as the Grocery Rescue Program.

HOW DOES WFBR DISTRIBUTE ITS FOOD?
Any IRS-certified 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization with a hunger-relief program that serves the ill, need, or children my apply to be one of WFRB’s partner agencies. There is no membership fee. Shelters, food pantries, emergency assistance programs, child-welfare centers, senior citizen nutrition programs, faith-based communities, community centers, halfway houses and other similar organization receive food from WFBR.

Agency Application

Why would an Agency use WFBR?

The food from our warehouse is handled safely, professionally and in accordance with all food industry, government agency, health and sanitation standards. WFBR provides the most cost-effective way for an agency to access the greatest variety of food and necessities en masse. WFBR professionals can obtain the best product available at the best price. Not only do hunger-relief programs save significantly, WFBR offers education, support, resources (and often free produce) to our partners; helping them to enhance and expand their programs and funding.

At WFBR, we leverage food purchases through our affiliations with Food Bank of the Rockies in Denver and their membership with Feeding America, a national hunger-relief nonprofit organization. WFBR also receives donated food items, which are distributed to our partner agencies at no cost along with produce, bread, dairy and meat obtained through the Grocery Rescue Program. Consequently, each agency partner receives a “mix” of purchased, donated and rescued food items, which significantly reduces the overall food cost per pound.

We work hard to keep our operating costs low: 96¢ of every $1.00 donated to WFBR goes directly to purchase and distribute food.

Do Partner Agencies have to purchase the food they receive?

To cover transportation and warehouse costs, partner agencies contribute an Agency Support Fee (ASF), permitted by the IRS. These fees range from 0¢-19¢ per pound; according to a National Audit Firm, the average agency contributes is 7¢ per pound. The average value of WFBR inventory is $1.72 per pound.

To encourage consumption and reduce spoilage, most fresh produce and all bread items are distributed FREE. Last year WFBR distributed millions pounds of food free (with no ASF.) Products donated to WFBR through food drives and fundraisers are ALWAYS distributed back to their local communities without a fee.
